

Call for Expressions of Interest for the National VET Team of Experts

Léargas, a National Agency for Erasmus+ in Ireland, would like to invite expressions of interest to become experts on the National VET Team.

What is the National VET Team?

The National VET Team is a team of national Experts composed of professionals active in Vocational Education and Training (VET). The Team supports the development and internationalisation of the VET sector, collaborates with other National VET Teams to share best international practices in VET, and provides advice and support to EU-funded projects under the Erasmus+ programme.

National VET Team objectives are implemented by organising consultations, research, seminars, conferences, workshops, training sessions, study visits, as well as providing expert advice to the beneficiaries of the Erasmus+ programme in the VET sector in Ireland.

Prospective experts are expected to attend three VET Team meetings per year and attend national and international events dependent on their capacity and availability.

To be appointed to the VET Team Expert panel you must:

- be resident in Ireland.
- have tangible experience with working with EU VET tools on learning mobility, quality assurance, use of learning outcomes and/or recognition in VET, graduate tracking, apprenticeship schemes, etc.
- be well embedded in the VET environment and cooperate closely with National Authorities and bodies committed in the field of VET and qualifications or
- hold one of the following positions (or a combination thereof): VET researchers, VET practitioners, Erasmus+ Coordinators, VET experts, VET quality assurance experts, VET mobility experts, Qualifications experts or Education statistics experts.

On conclusion of this call a panel of successful candidates will be formed. Candidates who obtain a place on the VET Team and who fulfil the conditions of the selection process will be appointed VET Team Experts for the period of 2024-2027 inclusive.

Please complete and submit this form by Friday 6 September to be considered to join the National VET Team.
